THE GAZETTE.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRAY. 27.

AN AMUSING SCENE.-At Culpeper Court-House, years ago, Dick Hardy, then a goodhumored, gay, young bachelor, and the prime favorite of both sexes, was called upon to carve the pig at the court dioner. The judge was at the table, the lawyer, the justice, and every body else that felt disposed to join. At Dick's right elbow sat a militia cotonel, who was tricked out in all the pomp and circumstance admitted by his rank. He had probably been engaged in some court-martial imposing fines on absentees from the last general muster.

Howbeit, Dick, in thrusting his fork into the back of the pig, bespattered the officer's regimentals with some of the superfluous gravy. "Beg your pardon," said Dick, as he went on with his carving. "Beg your pardon" might serve as a napkin to wipe the stain from one's honor, but did not touch the question of the greased and spotted regimentals.

The colonel, swelling with wrath, seized a spoon, and deliberately dipping it into the gravy, dashed it over Dick's prominent shirt-

All saw the act, and with opened eyes and mouths sat in astonished silence, waiting to see what would be done next. The outraged citizen calmly laid down his knife and fork, and looked at his frill, the officer and the pig, one after another. The colonel, unmindful of the pallid countenance and significant glances of the burning eyes, leaned back in his chair with arms akimbo, regarding the young fellow with cool disdain. A murmur of surprise and indignation arose from the congregated guests.

Dick's face turned red as a turkey-gobbler's. He deliberately took the pig by the hind legs and with a whirl brought it down upon the head of the unlucky officer. Stunned by the squetching blow, astounded and blinded with streams of gravy and wads of stuffing. he attempted to rise, but blow after blow from the tat pig fell upon his bewildered head. He seized a carving-knife and attempted to defend himself with bind but ineffectual fury, and at length, with a desperate effort, rose and took to his heels.

Dick Hardy, whose wrath waxed bitter and hotter, followed, belaboring him unmercifully at every step, around the table, through the hall and into the street, the crowd shouting and applauding. Among this crowd were lawyers, sheriffs, magistrates and constables, and even his honor the judge shouted in a loud voice, "Give it to him, Dick Hardy! There's no law in Christendom against basting a man with a reast pig!"

Dick's weapon failed before his anger, and when at length the colonel escaped into the door of a friendly dwelling, the victor had nothing in his hands but the hind legs of a roaster. He entered the dining-room flourishing these over his head, and venting his still unappeased wrath in great oaths.

The company reassembled and finished their dinner as best they might. In reply to a toast, Hardy made a speech, wherein he apologized for wasting the dinner of the party.-N. Y.

Notice to the Friends of the Night School.

This activity of the Young Men's Christian Association is too well and favorably known to require any mention of its merits and of its claims upon the benevolence of all philanthropic as well as Christian citizens.

There was, perhaps, never a time when this School promised more good by way of improving the boys of the city by this means than at the present.

Numbering about forty pupils, who every night in the week are taught and trained in those things that go to make them good and useful citizens, instead of being left to roam round the streets without guide, aim or object, nothing could be more desirable than the continuation of this School.

But it becomes necessary to make known to the citizens that all the funds for its support are exhausted, and it must be discontinued at once, unless the means are immediately placed in the hands of the committee to keep it up.

We are sure that this notice is all that is needed to secure the desired help.

All funds for the above object will be sent to G. H. ROBINSON, Treasurer of School Board. I. C. O'NEAL, Pres't. Y.M.C.A. G. H. ROBINSON.

SALE OF VALUABLE VIRGINIA LANDS. By virtue of a decree of the County Court of Loudoun, made in the chancery suit of Hopkins, Hull & Co. vs. Berkley, the undersigned, commissioners of sale, will offer at public auction, in front of the Court Honse, in Leesburg, Loudoun county, Va., on MONDAY, March 17th, 1873, the following REAL ESTATE, viz:
A VALUABLE TRACT OF TIMBER

LAND, containing 408 acres, in Prince William county, adjoining the lands of Edmund Berkeley, Ewell, Bayley and others, about six miles from Thoroughfare station, on the O., A. & M. R. R., and four miles from Aldie, on the Piedmont and Potomac Railroad-over firm roads of easy grade. This land is heavily timbered with chestnut, hickory and oak, and has upon it a vein of rich iron ore, running through its entire length. Also the ONE UNDIVIDED HALF of one of the most valuable and productive estates in Virginia, known as "GOOSE POND," lying on the south bank of the Mattaponi river, in Caroline county, containing 1950 acres, of which about 950 is timber of original growth, and the rest productive, arable land, under cultivation. The timber consists of the varieties of oak, pine, walnut and hickory, and is considered by good judges equal to any body of timber land in the State. An experienced timber getter estimates the value of the hickory alone, for spokes, at double its assessed value. The pine and call furnish the linest masts and ship timber. The arable land has heretofore been cultivated by intelligent and liberal agriculturists, and until the war, with extraordinary remunerative results. The estate was somewhat neglected during the war, and the owners have not had the means since of restoring it to its former productiveness. Two hundred acres of this land have been cropped continuously for nearly a century, and will now produce from 50 to 75 bushels of corn to the acre. Marl is abundant on the place, and has been liberally applied. The Mattaponi is a beautiful stream; its navigation was obstructed during the war, but at a slight expense it can he made navigable for vessels of 100 tons to the landing on the estate. 'Goose Pond' adjoins the famous Corbin estate, 'The Reeds,' and also "Hays," the justly celebrated estate of Major Wm. N. Berkeley, separated from "Goose Pond" only by the Mattaponi river. The other half of "Goose Pond" is held for sale by General Eppa Hunton, of Warrenton, who will unite in the sale of the whole tract.

"HAYS," containing 1650 acres, will be offered for sale at the same time, by B. P. Noland, Trustee, under a deed of trust from Maj. Berkeley. These two estates forming a compact body of about 3000 acres of splendid land, offer the most desirable location in Virginia for a colony. The attention of capitalists, of agriculturalists and dealers in timber and lumber is invited to these lands. None more desirable, in quality or prices, are now in market. Terms of Sale: So much of the purchasemoney to be paid in cash on the day of sale as will pay the costs of suit and expenses of sale; the residue upon a credit of one, two, three and four years, in equal instalments, bearing interest from the day of sale; the purchaser to execute his bonds for the deferred instalments, and the title to be retained till the purchase money is all MATTHEW HARRISON,

B. P. NOLAND, POWELL HARRISON, J. H. ALEXANDER, Commissioners of Sale.

BY AUTHORITY OF A DEED OF TRUST, and with the full consent of the present owner, Major W. N. Berkeley, I will offer, at the same time and place, and upon the same terms as the above, that splendid estate, in King William county, known as "HAYS," containing 1650 acres, adjoining "Goose Pone," the Mattaponi river being the dividing line. The timber upon this estate is of the same quality as that on "Goose Pond," and the arable land of the same fertile character. It has been managed since the war better than Goose Pond, and is consequently now in better condition, and produces heavy crops of grain, tobacco and clover. The DWEL-LING HOUSE and out-buildings are complete and in good condition.
